2. Reading

Match the paragraphs (A-G) to the headings (1-8). There is one extra heading:

A. Russia, also officially known as the Russian Federation, is the largest country in the world. Its territory is 17,075,400 square kilometers. According to scientists, the country's territory would almost cover the surface of the planet Pluto. It is the only country which is washed by 3 oceans and 12 seas. Russia is considered to be a European country, but two-thirds of the country are in Asia. However, most of the population lives in the European part of Russia.

B. Siberian Lake Baikal is the largest pool of fresh water on the planet. All the 12 major rivers of the world (the Volga, the Don, the Yenisei, the Ob, the Ganges, the Amazon, etc.) would need to flow almost a year to fill a pool equal to the volume of Lake Baikal. Another impressive fact is that even if all the rest of the planet's fresh water supply were to disappear, there would be enough fresh water left in Lake Baikal to supply the people of the earth for up to 50 years.

C. Russia is the country with the largest forest reserves in the world. 45% of its territory is covered in green forests. The forests are located in the European north of the country, in Siberia and in the Far East. Forests play an important role in the life and welfare of people. Russian forests are the biggest 'lungs' of the Earth. They produce oxygen and clean the atmosphere of carbon dioxide and other pollutants.

D. There are more than five thousand languages in the world. Russian is one of the five major world languages. 280 million people around the world speak Russian and it is one of the most widely spoken native languages in Europe. The United Nations uses Russian as one of the official languages of the organization. It is also used in international commerce, politics, academic and cultural life.

E. For its collection of books, the Russian State Library is considered to be the biggest in Europe and one of the largest in the world. The Russian State Library was founded in 1862, in Moscow. The library has over 275 km of shelves with more than 43 million items, including books, journals and magazines, art publications, music scores and sound records, maps and other things. There are items in 247 languages of the world.

F. Russia is known all over the world for its space programmes. In 1957 the Soviet Union launched Sputnik 1, the first artificial satellite in the world. Four years later, in 1961, human space flight was accomplished. Soviet cosmonaut Yuri Gagarin was the first man to journey into space. He orbited the Earth and landed the same day. There are other impressive space achievements of the country like the first long space flight, the first woman cosmonaut in space, and the first spacewalk.

G. One of the most popular souvenirs tourists buy in Russia is the Matryoshka. It is a doll made of wood and painted with colourful ornaments. Although the Matryoshka is called a doll, it is actually a set of dolls of different sizes placed inside one another. A traditional Russian Matryoshka has big black eyes, red healthy cheeks and a friendly smile. She wears a national Russian costume, and often has some flowers or a basket of fruit in her hands.

1. A huge diamond of water
2. A famous Russian toy
3. Named after a famous scientist
4. Getting higher than the sky
5. The fresh air producer
6. Famous for its size
7. A great source of knowledge
8. Spoken all over the world

2. Reading

Match the paragraphs (A-G) to the headings (1-8). There is one extra heading:

A. The age between 14 and 17 is often considered to be one of the best periods in a person's life. Grown-ups remember it with excitement and happiness. They wish they were teenagers again. However, most teenagers won't agree with this point of view if they were asked. They're sure that they are facing a lot of difficult problems and that's quite true.

B. Smoking has become one of the most important problems for modern teenagers. About 40 percent of teenagers are attracted by the bright cigarette advertisement. It seems they just don't realize the harm it does to their health, because advertisements show smoking as something positive. They really believe that smoking will make them look like they're cool and grown-up.

C. In fact, teenagers have got a lot of work. They're busy with their studies, household chores, some of them have jobs. They can't even find a moment to entertain themselves at times. It's a more serious problem especially for those who are responsible and want to be successful students and good children.

D. The problem number one for most young people is between fathers and sons. All young people want to be independent, they want their parents to listen to their opinion. As for parents, they want to control their children's lives. At the same time some parents can't find a common language with their kids and simply don't pay enough attention to them.

E. They say that all teenagers want to have a lot of money to dress well, to go to theatres, to visit foreign countries, to eat what they want and to buy books. But how can they do all these things? They have to get some money and it's possible to do it. Some teenagers wash cars, others sell newspapers, help elderly people and babysit.

F. School ages are also very difficult. Children are always stressed because of their marks at school. It seems to teenagers that they do a lot of homework, but mothers and fathers are never satisfied. They want their children to have the highest marks at school. Teenagers do their best, but adults are never happy. They always want more.

G. There are many organizations which unite young people. Teenagers get together because of common interests and beliefs. Members of every organisations have their own attitudes to the world. There are some informal clubs, for example: emos, hippies, punks, and so on. However, some teenagers choose to join more serious groups like Greenpeace.

1. Generation gap
2. Attractive but unhealthy
3. Youth movements and societies
4. Always busy
5. Conflicts with friends
6. Parents' ambitions
7. Are teenagers happy?
8. They want to earn and spend

11. When you think of the Irish, you often picture a red-haired person dressed all in green. However, it's just a popular myth which has grown into a tradition, particularly in the United States. It's customary in Ireland to wear green clothes only on St. Patrick's Day. Lots of people are tricked by this cliché. However, originally, the colour associated with Saint Patrick was not green, but blue.

12. In Ireland, the colour green was long considered to bring bad fortune. The reason is that in Irish folklore green is the favourite color of the Good People (the proper name for fairies). Myths run that they are likely to steal people, especially children, who wear too much of the colour. In the past, a girl would never wear anything green on her wedding day.

13. Christmas is a very important celebration in Ireland. After dinner on Christmas Eve, it is common for families to leave milk and bread on the table as a sign of friendliness and kindness. Another custom is to leave the door unlocked. A lit candle is left in a window during the night. It represents help for any traveller who is passing by.

14. Potatoes form the basis for many traditional Irish dishes. They are eaten boiled, mashed, fried, baked, you name it. Potatoes are mixed with cabbage or green onions to make traditional Irish dishes. They are also made into potato cakes and used in soups or stews. It's common to find potatoes cooked in two different ways on the same dinner plate.

15. The shamrock is still a popular sign of good fortune in Ireland. It is believed that anyone who possesses one will be blessed with fortune in everything, even in gambling, and will be saved from the evil of witches. There are certain conditions to be met so that its power remains effective: the owner of the shamrock must keep it away from the public eye and never give it to anyone else.

16. The name Gulliver is known to everyone due to the book or the film about the fantastic trip of the English doctor. However, not all of us remember the name of the author — Jonathan Swift, an Irish writer, who was born in Dublin, Ireland, in 1667. In his book Gulliver’s Travels a man went to an island where strange tiny people lived. His life there was full of adventures and dangers, he met there friends and enemies.

17. Ireland is known as the native land of limericks — short humorous poems that have five lines. They make people laugh and are easy to remember! Lots of poets and writers were fond of limericks. The word “limerick” probably comes from the Irish town of Limerick. The short poem has made the town known all over the world.

Speaker A. I love sports. But I've never been very extreme. Recently my friend had a ski holiday in the mountains. But I chose to stay at home. First: I hate cold. I don't enjoy staying outdoors longer than half an hour. Second: I found ski boots so heavy and uncomfortable. And the last but the main reason: is that I could fall over and hurt myself.

Speaker B. I think that winter is the best season of the year and I take every opportunity to do winter sports. I like skiing best of all. First of all it's very exciting to ski down the slope. Lots of people from different places go to skiing and I like to meet new friends. And finally, when you ski you enjoy the wonderful nature, the beautiful landscape and the fresh air of the mountains.

Speaker C. I sometimes go to the ski resorts with my friends. However, when I first tried this sport it was a great failure. I spent about half an hour putting the boots on! They were heavy, and it was difficult to move in them. Anyway, I got to the hill and fastened the skis and started to slide down! I wasn't able to stop! It was really frightening. At last, I fell over and stopped. Very painful.

Speaker D. I ski quite serious and I often take part in different competitions: local, national, international. Safety is very important for this sport. Apart from quality skis, good boots are important. They should be strong and high to protect the ankles. The helmet is also necessary. I also wear sport glasses and the skiing mask to protect my face from the sun, the wind and the snow.

Speaker E. When we go skiing we always stay in one and the same hotel, it's in a very beautiful place in the mountains and sometimes even the international competitions are held there. Apart from several ski centers where we hire skis there are restaurants there and medical center, different souvenir shops and several ski-lifts that can take you up to the top of the mountains very quickly.

- A-1: I've never been very extreme... I chose to stay at home... I hate cold... I find ski boots very heavy and uncomfortable...
- B-3: I do winter sports... skiing best of all... enjoy wonderful nature and fresh air..
- C-2: However, when I first try... it was a great failure...
- D-4: Safety is very important... helmet is necessary... quality skies...
- E-5: We stay in the same hotel... there are restaurants, a medical centre, several ski lifts...

Speaker A. I like family celebrations, when several generations gather around the table and talk and exchange news. My grandmother and I usually make a large apple pie. Everyone in the family loves it. It's a traditional recipe. To make the apples taste fresh and stay crispy we add some lemon juice with sugar and vanilla. It's also important to take the pie out of the oven in time.

Speaker B. It was warm and sunny last weekend and we were glad to spend a couple of days outdoors. We went on a bus trip in a nearby town famous for its parks and a large fruit garden. The garden looks fantastic and most of the apple trees are in blossom. In a café we enjoyed some fruit tea with the delicious apple pie.

Speaker C. I used to do swimming and cycling but now I've got new interests in life. I start drawing. I go to the art school and I like it very much. Today we drew a still life. There are different things like fruits, flowers and other household objects. We drew a vase with apples. I never thought it could be so difficult to make the apples look realistic on the picture.

Speaker D. My mom always says that the food we eat should be not only tasty but good for our bodies too. That's why she includes lots of fruits and vegetables in our menu. She prefers local season fruits to exotic ones. And believes that there is nothing better than green apples from our garden. An apple a day keeps a doctor away, she says. And I think she is right.

Speaker E. When I was little I spent lots of time in my granny's. She and her neighbour had large gardens which makes the village look fantastic. I wanted to be a gardener to take care of flowers, cherry and apple trees as I enjoyed it very much. I also wanted to grow some more beautiful flower and give it my granny's name – Nancy. But that never came true. I work as a sales manager in a telephone company now.

- A-6: I like family celebrations... a large apple pie... to make the apples stay fresh...
- B-2: It was warm and sunny last weekend and we were happy to spend time outdoors...
- C-5: I used to do swimming and cycling but now I've got another interest of life. I've become keen on drawing...
- D-4: the food we eat should be not only tasty... she includes lots of fruit and vegetables in our menu... There's nothing better than a green apple from our garden...
- E-1: When I was little I spent time with my grandmother... a large garden... I wanted to be a gardener... to grow a beautiful flower...

ALEXANDER VEREINOV

History has proven time and time again that there are people who can rise above difficulties and face great challenges in a way that is inspiring to all. Many people with serious disabilities often manage to not only look past their condition, but even go on to achieve greatness. Two shining examples of this are Ludwig van Beethoven and Helen Keller.

Another brilliant case is that of Alexander Vereinov, a famous Russian artist. Born in 1956, Vereinov suffers from cerebral palsy, a condition which seriously affects body and muscle movement. His first attempts at painting began at a special hospital for children suffering from cerebral palsy, where he spent his childhood. Since he had no control of his hands, Vereinov used his mouth to hold his paintbrushes. The problem was that the people at the hospital were afraid he would hurt himself, so he wasn't allowed to paint; which is why he did all his works of art at night, in secret.

Today, Alexander Vereinov is an internationally recognised mouth artist, who has produced many stunning originals as well as reproductions of well-known paintings. His original works include the portraits of Leo Tolstoy and Alexander Pushkin. Some say that his reproductions of other well-known paintings are nearly impossible to tell from the original.

However, Vereinov's activity does not end here. Together with Maxim Goubanov, a Russian philanthropist, he works towards raising money for the Alexander Vereinov Disabled Russian Citizens Fund. This is an organisation that aims to provide wheelchairs, medicine, food and other necessities to disabled people who do not have enough means to support themselves. Indeed, Alexander Vereinov is an inspirational example of being able to use your inner strength and determination to become successful and then use this success to help others.

Dear Tom,

Thanks for your letter. Sorry I haven't answered earlier but I was busy with my school project. Hope you didn't have accidents while hiking!

As for me, I don't have much time on active holidays because I have a lot of homework. My family is more the stay-at-home sort, so I can't spend the time with them somehow actively. My company is my friend and, you know, our trips are usually very jolly. I'd like to try rafting this spring, because it implies a well coordinated team work, good reaction and nerves of steel.

I'd better go now as my Dad wants me to help him with his car. Write soon!

Love,

Ann

Критерии проверки

Итоговая контрольная работа состоит из двух частей: письменной (задания 1–4, включающие задания по аудированию, чтению, письменной речи, а также задания на контроль лексико-грамматических навыков выпускников); устной (задание 5, содержащее условный диалог-расспрос на заданную тему).

В контрольной работе проверяется иноязычная коммуникативная компетенция выпускников основной школы. Работа нацелена на проверку речевых умений выпускников в четырех видах речевой деятельности (аудировании, чтении, письме, говорении).

Максимально за данную работу ученик 9 класса может получить 42 балла, из них 5 баллов за аудирование, 5 баллов за выполнение задания по чтению, 20 баллов за лексико-грамматический тест, 6 баллов за задание по письму и 6 баллов за устный опрос.

За верное выполнение каждого задания с выбором ответа ученик получает 1 балл. За неверный ответ или отсутствие ответа выставляется 0 баллов. В задании 1 оценивается каждое правильно установленное соответствие. В задании 2 оценивается каждое правильно отмеченное утверждение (верно-неверно). В задании 3 оценивается каждый верный ответ на каждый из 20 тестовых вопросов. Задание 4 подразумевает практическое умение соотнести части письма в логическом порядке, в данном задании оценивается каждая верно расположенная часть письма. В задании 5 ответ оценивается в 1 балл при соответствии его коммуникативной задаче, ответ должен быть правильно и логично выстроен. При несоответствии ответа коммуникативной задаче, такой ответ оценивается в 0 баллов.

Таким образом, выставляются следующие отметки:

«2» 0-49% 0-20 баллов

«3» 50-69% 21-29 баллов

«4» 70-90% 30-37 баллов

«5» 91-100% 38-42 балла
